Overall Summary

- Pedro is a penalty-area striker (poacher), who relies on his positioning and finishing rather than pace when creating goal-scoring opportunities.
- He easily reads the game and most of the time predicts where the ball is likely to land.
- In most situations, he needs one touch to score.
- In the recent match against Madureira, Pedro showed strong awareness in both build-up play and penalty-area actions, remaining alert to loose balls and quickly exploiting opportunities inside the box.

Strengths

- Great positioning as he finds space between defenders in dangerous areas.
- Knows when to run and slow down during build-up (cannot be caught offside easily).
- High concentration and reaction in the penalty box.
- Strong hold-up play as he is capable of receiving with back to goal and linking with teammates.

Areas of Improvement

- Work on ball control after any directional changes.
- Decision-making in the box, choose shot or pass faster.
- Link-up play with midfielders in build-up phases.
- Long range shooting.

Build-Up Contribution

Hold-Up Play

- Pedro's hold-up style is more strength-based than dynamic is a reliable player Flamengo's attack.
- Linking Teammates into Play: He retains possession and plays quick lay-offs to wingers and midfielders, helping create second-phase chances in the final third.
- Ball Shielding & Physical Presence: Pedro uses his strong frame and balance effectively to protect the ball with his back to goal.
- Limitations Under High Pressure: He relies on strength rather than quick turns, and against aggressive pressing he slows his team's attacking tempo before passing the ball.

Link-Up Play

- Combination play: Great in one-twos and wall passes, and creates overloads and quick transitions in the final third.
- Passing and decision-making: His efficiency per 90 peaked at 1.55 in 2025, showing smart, productive choices under pressure.
- Spatial Awareness: He drifts into half-spaces and pockets between defenders.

Recommendation

Flamengo or similar teams should use him as the primary target in build-up play. This means the teams will be leveraging his finishing, movement, and ability to link play. He should also be paired up with a dynamic midfield support to maximize his impact.
